

Mr Simon Ashforth

School Council Committees: Member of Management Committee

Member of School Council since: November 2011

Two children in School

Professional/Business Background: Chartered Quantity Surveyor (MRICS), currently working as a Regional Commercial Director for Balfour Beatty: the UK's largest provider of infrastructure and construction services. Had responsibility for the design and construction of numerous school projects (17nr) from feasibility through to completion.

Other Interests: Enjoys all sports, particularly rugby, golf and cricket. Coached Durham City mini and junior rugby teams for several years.