

Prof Amar Rangan

School Council Committees: Member of Education Committee

Member of School Council since: January 2010

One child in School

Professional Background: Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery with faculty appointments at University of Oxford & University of York; and clinical appointment as Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon at The James Cook University Hospital, Middlesbrough. Course Director, Postgraduate Masters Programme in Teesside; National Orthopaedic Research Lead at The Royal College of Surgeons of England.

Other interests: Cricket, music and photography.