Dear Parents

Year 11 – permission to wear a pair of earrings

As a School Management Team, we are regularly reviewing policies and we have made the decision that from 2 November 2020, Year 11 pupils will be permitted to wear a pair of earrings to school.

The earrings must be:

- A plain 'stud'-style earring
- A pair
- Worn in the ear lobe at the same level

For health and safety reasons, earrings must be removed for Year 11 GCSE PE and Games lessons and any sporting fixtures which may happen later in the academic year.

If a pupil infringes on these guidelines, they will be asked to remove their earrings immediately.

With all best wishes to you and your family.

Yours sincerely

Dr Rebecca Ashcroft
Deputy Head – Head of Senior School
